Go to PageDiscussionEditHistory Eighteyes Exel MARKET INTERSIBLEUNTRADABLE Item Description: Named for markings running down either side of its head, although its circular maw lined with zinted teeth is probably more worthy of attention. [Suitable for medium-canvas printing.] Requirements: Level 1 Item Level 290 Statistics & Bonuses: Repairs, Recycling & Style: Stack Size 999 Sells for Unsustainable Purchases Use Type: Lakes Prime Locations: Norvrandt - Lakeland Baits: Fruit Worm Level: 300 The seven sets of small fins arranged along its length were first considered as eye, borrowing this wavekin's name. Its secretions are said to be effective against eye diseases-it would seem its discoverer don't think to rub their eyes with the oil of the eye before jumping to judgment. Contribute shadowbrings UPDATED! to the level of fast fishing!? Confused with Levequests fishing? Looking for Fish & Fishing Pots? Your Fisher Power Level! One again, back in the fishing holes! Welcome to The Shadowbringers level, for fishing L70 to 80! Without further ado, let's go! FSH Leveling Navigation: [01-15] | [15-35] | [35-50] | [50-55] | [55-60] | [60-70] | [70-80] Fishing L70 to 80 – Reminders I'll just post some useful information here for you to easily refer to if you need it. Fishing L70 to 71 – DEADZONEThe first level of any expansion is usually a deadzone, and Shadowbringers is no exception. This is due to many things, but mainly due to low or RANDOM gear levels. Scrip and above tools – obliterating deadzoneThe easiest way to get out of deadzone is gearing up, and the cheapest/most cost effective set for that right now is Set Landking, obtained through the scrip. Buy landking scrip tracks: All the pieces on the left are fine. The gun and chest are exceptionally good. DO NOT BUY LANDING ACCESSORIES. DO NOT BUY FANCY L70 GEAR, OR THOSE SUBPOWERED. AVOID BUYING THE FOLLOWING SETS: Lower Scrip Level: Tackeking, Augmented Tackleking.Crafted Rods: Zelvova, Ala Mhigan, Black Willow.Left-side: Serge, Ala Mhigan, Yamashi, Gazelleskin, Twinselk. (including augmented and ornate) Accessories: Gazelleskin & Slothskini would still recommend reading the rest of the deadzone segment as a refresh to the leveling process either way. Scrip gear from now on, in this guide, means Landking's set. Fortunately, Custom Deliveries and the new Facet quest system gives us tons of scrip to buy this equipment! Getting from DeadzoneHere's all the practical ways to get EXP to beat deadzone. But first you have to unlock your new quest class... UNLOCK CRYSTARIUM DELIVERIESShadowbringers gives us Crystarium Deliveries, which is strangely called because there is nothing like delivery systems. It's essentially a new type of quest class. Other ways to earn EXP & BEating Deadzone! Keep in mind many of these apply even past the deadzone. First of all, SCRIP GEAR is the easiest way – It's pretty worth it, especially if you're leveling all 3 DoL DoL There are pieces you don't really want, though... Improving Gear (SCRIP GEAR)! I know we just talked about it, but to hammer home... Scrip gear is the most practical way to beat deadzone at level 70 without breaking the bank. Buy the gun, and all the pieces on the left are good. Avoid accessories. If you don't have access to the scrips, don't worry – simply continue with the advice below, while saving the scrips up. Definitely the easiest way to get out of fast zone. You can send 12 custom deliveries per week to these NPC's: Mnaago in Rhagirs ReachAdkiragh and Zhloe Alpaioh in IdylshireKurenai in Ruby Sea.Each deposit offers great EXP and other rewards. The obvious disadvantage of this method is the weekly limitation. You should first use these to get out of deadzones, or difficult levels. KEEP IN MIND THESE OBSERVATIONS ARE SHARED BETWEEN ALL CLASSES! Meaning 12 max TOTAL for your character. SURVIVAL MANUALS ARE YOUR FRIENDS. Seriously, fishing is the most RNG at the top class level. This advice, while useful in deadzone, applies to the rest of the leveling journey. Getting megachunks of EXP on the cast will make at least a little less salty that you can't catch these damn levequest fish. If you're leveling non-fishers too, getting Scrips to buy Manuals is worth it. It greatly accelerates the FSH leveling process. They're almost impossible to do if the equipment is bad. You can try, but if you don't pack script tools or above, I wouldn't mind. Even then, I feel there are better things to do. Save it until you're 71+. Farming your own fish for levequests will be difficult to say the least if you are undergeared. Save it for 71+. Again, only if you have scrip tools or above. You can opt to buy cheap fish from MB (NQ if you are desperate and overflowing on levels!). This is not a bad way to level up, while spending otherwise excessive levequests. Grinding - Stormblood zones & CrystariumStrau fishing in older areas yields decent EXP. You can easily get out of the deadzone if you grind into any Stormblood zone that you can manage, while preferably using an EXP manual, or having exp rested. This is kind of related to the above, Custom Virries, as you'll be getting other fish while trying to get collectable. If you are lucky to find them in the marketboard for an affordable, high price. Otherwise, I personally wouldn't waste time going for them in the wild. A great source of EXP, but it can be quite impossible for fishermen from L70 to 71 - the pool of necessary changes of fish at 72/73, so this is an iffy source of EXP until then. Personally, this can be a bit boring to as you level up. Marketboard can be your friend if you can find those cheap. The easiest ways to punch through are getting fish Made Eigheyes Eel if you have the tools, or blowing custom supplies on it! Reminder: Patience II RotationThis rotation greatly increases the chances of landing various collectibles. Facetfish and some levequest fish. that's what I'm going to do to it in this guide as Rotation Patience. Wait until the GP is full and Cordial has availableUse Patience II (Patience I, if you feel lucky) Use Cordial immediately after. Reel in proper use Hookset.Fishing L71 to 72A lot happens upon reaching the L71, the most critical of which are Surface Slap, possible gear updates, and to level up once you have passed the dead zone. A great tool goes on, Surface Slap prevents you from catching the fish you just caught for the next shot. It only takes a shoot, unlike the Veteran Trade.While not as goodly as the Veteran Trade, it helps us a little, given that fishing is really an RNG fiesta. I'll list the best palms and crafts in the tables going forward. FSH L71 Gear Update! If you have the scrip gear, you can use that too! But not all scrip gear is fine. Here's a summary of what your gear should look like going forward. Artisanal means HQ w/Materia V/M (you can safely unslot them) technically speaking, the tools easily crafted the edges of the scrip gear – but the wether is worth it or not is up to you. Scrip gear is simply cheaper in that the scrip is quite easy to obtain. If you're rich, or don't have scrip, here's the compare of the L71 tools: !!! There is no excuse for not getting Landking (scrip) weapon and chest !!! ALL NON-CHEST NON-WEAPON HQ L71 CRAFTED GEAR is, approximately, 2 to 5% stronger than their scrip counterpart. It's really try and negligible, but an option if you don't have scrip. But after suggesting the table in the previous tab, HQ L71 Smilokonskin Accessories are a great investment because you can mix perception into them. I'd rather save money for future optional upgrades. However, the bait/location causes unnecessary line pulling noises that I don't like. Purple Ghost (triple) felt a little sucking side. The chances of other spears targets were simply too high, even after the veteran trade. EXP is also garbage compared to the effort required. Farming Albino Caiman collectibles felt much more efficient. Xanthic Bass is by far the best option for leves in terms of common sense, if you can fish them in Sullen at L71, so it's listed as an L72 hole (I'm pretty sure you can...). Try it because fishing up Xanthic Bass to the L71 hole, Source, was complete trash. FSH Coleable ReferenceLevel Appropriate FSH Collectables.Collectable FishBaitMapFishing HoleXYMinSlap/Trade? Note70Albino CaimanFruit WormLakelandRift by Sighs3215760Candy&SnailPowerfulAlbino Caiman was pretty good.. You'll be fishing there anyway for quest facet fish. These seem to be so rare, and at L73 you can catch significantly more if you upgrade the bait to Marble Nymph.What do you do in this level? After you sort your gear, farm/submit Eighteyes Eels, if you don't already at Lakeland, Rift of Sighs (32.15) with Worm Fruit. Put your Collect on, after you can get Albino Caiman collectables too. Rotation Patience is a little strange here because precision hooks in eels, and powerful hooks in Caimans.Honest the above process is a pretty good way to level up to 72. Albino Caiman is quite easy to catch, and try to get as many HQ Eighteeneye Eels. Levequests in this level felt bad ... But if you're trying to use leve... I would advise against this triple levels. Levequest I prefer is Xanthic Bass. Look at the notes in the box.
